

Local member of grassroots anti-poverty advocacy group,
RESULTS Australia, would like to invite you to be a part of
TWO unique events in our local community

THE GLOBAL

ON POVERTY

Hugh Evans (former Young Australian of the Year) and the team from Global Poverty Project and RESULTS Australia invite you to the presentation of 1.4 Billion Reasons.

This compelling and challenging 90 minute presentation is travelling the world, inspiring and empowering audiences in its path.

See: globalpovertyproject.com/ and www.hughevans.com.au for more information

"This project is inspiring"

Hugh Jackman, Australian actor and GPP Ambassador

Parliamentary Leaders Bronwyn Bishop, Julie Bishop PLUS leading guest speakers and a prominent local facilitator discuss Global Poverty including aid and development issues.

Be part of this exciting 1st time - 90 minute presentation with Q and A opportunities, followed by refreshments.

Your presence is showing your commitment to "making a difference" at the local community level to generating the will to end poverty.

Can we really end extreme poverty? Yes!

Please feel free to extend this invite to your friends and colleagues.
